

Privacy Policy

The Hindu Network Foundation is committed to protecting the privacy and personal information of its donors, supporters, and visitors.

We collect personal information such as name, contact details, and donation-related information solely for the purpose of processing contributions, issuing receipts, maintaining donor records, and sharing relevant updates about our work. Payment information is handled securely by authorized payment gateways; we do not store sensitive financial details such as card numbers or banking credentials.

We do not sell, trade, or share donor information with any third party, except where required by law, regulatory authorities, or trusted service providers strictly for operational purposes (such as payment processing, compliance, or communication).

All reasonable measures are taken to ensure data security and confidentiality. Donors may request access, correction, or removal of their personal information by writing to us at:
